

SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT TRAINING

12. Setting Up a Safety Committee and Implementing OSHA

BENEFITS

Upon completion of this program, participants will be able to:

-) Understand the OSHA requirements on Safety Management Policy
-) Form a Safety Committee in the company
-) Apply and implement safety measures in the workplace

REQUIREMENT

This program is suitable for all Managers, Supervisors and Workers in manufacturing environments who needs to be aware of OSHA and its requirements in the workplace will benefit from this course.

All who are nominated by the management to set up the safety committee will have hands-on experience in implementation of the policy

METHODOLOGY

This program is conducted via theoretical sessions shall be followed by group discussion, simple computation, presentation and / or structured exercises, as well as questions and answers. Course material shall be professionally designed for ease of understanding and application

ESSENTIALS OF SAFETY AND HEALTH

-) Organizing for Safety & Health
-) Premises
-) Plant and Machinery
-) Substances
-) Procedures
-) People

PRINCIPLES OF OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY & HEALTH MANAGEMENT

SAFETY & HEALTH COMMITTEE: SAFETY & HEALTH COMMITTEE REGULATIONS 1996

PRELIMINARY REQUIREMENTS

COMPOSITION OF SAFETY & HEALTH COMMITTEE

FUNCTIONS OF SAFETY COMMITTEE

MEETINGS OF SAFETY & HEALTH COMMITTEE

PROVISIONS OF TRAINING & INFORMATION

PENALTY

END.