

Topic: You're been hired as System Engineer in a company. One of your role is to create, modify and delete staff accounts. There was a new employee join to the company. What kind of security controls will you implement for the employee?

Objective: Students will learn and understand the account management security controls.

Time: 20 minutes to discuss in breakout room

10 minutes to present by group leader

Answer: