BARCELONA

- Basilica Sagrada Familia - Basílica Sagrada Família is a large Roman Catholic church in Barcelona, designed by Catalan architect Antoni Gaudí (1852 – 1926). Gaudí's work on the building is part of a UNESCO World Heritage Site and in November 2010 Pope Benedict XVI consecrated and proclaimed it a minor basilica, as distinct from a cathedral, which must be the seat of a bishop.
- Park Güell - Is a public park system composed of gardens and architectonic elements located on Carmelo Hill. In 1984, UNESCO declared the park a World Heritage Site.
- De Catalunya - Is a large square in central Barcelona that is generally considered to be both its city centre and the place where the old city and the 19th century-built Eixample meet.
- Montserrat - "Montserrat" literally means "serrated (like the common handsaw) mountain" in Catalan. It describes its peculiar aspect with a multitude of rock formations that are visible from a great distance. The mountain is composed of a strikingly pink conglomerate, a form of sedimentary rock. Montserrat was designated as a National Park in 1987. The Monastery of Montserrat which houses the virgin that gives its name to the monastery is also on the mountain, although it is also known as La Moreneta.

VALENCIA

- The Estacio Del Nord - Is the main railway station in Valencia, Spain. It is located in the city centre next to the Plaza de Toros de Valencia, the city's bullring.
- Cathedral of Valencia - Is a Roman Catholic parish church in Valencia. It was consecrated in 1238 by the first bishop of Valencia after the Reconquista.

GRANADA

- Generalife - The name 'Generalife' means 'garden of the architect'. The Generalife is located on the hill Cerro del Sol, adjacent to the Alhambra. Originally it was most probably an architect's house that later passed to the royal family and was remodeled. The Generalife is composed of a series of large gardens, where every corner holds a novelty and a pleasant surprise for the eyes, with a minimum of obtrusive buildings.

CORDOBA

- Roman Bridge - The view over the Mosque-Cathedral, with the river, the Gate of the Bridge and the Roman Bridge of Cordoba itself, is one of the most wonderful sights of Cordoba, especially at dusk, when the last rays of the sun linger on and make the stone surfaces glow a deep golden red.

SEVILLE

- Seville Cathedral - Is a Roman Catholic cathedral in Seville. It is the largest Gothic cathedral and the third-largest church in the world. It was registered in 1987 by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site.
- Torre del Oro - Is a dodecagonal military watchtower in Seville, built by the Almohad dynasty in order to control access to Seville via the Guadalquivir river.

TOLEDO

- Church of Santo Tome - Dates from the 12th century, although it was completely rebuilt in the early 14th century by the Count of Orgaz. The tower is one of the best examples of the Mudéjar art characteristic of Toledo.
- Alcantara Bridge - Is a Roman stone arch bridge built over the Tagus River at Alcantara between 104 and 106 AD by an order of the Roman Emperor Trajan in 98.
